NCN@Purdue Spring Dinner

Tuesday, April 21, 2009
Purdue Memorial Union
(East Faculty Lounge)

WHEN & WHERE

6pm-9pm on Tuesday, April 21, 2009
Purdue Memorial Union
East Faculty Lounge (2nd floor)

All NCN students & faculties are welcome.
RSVP: Raseong Kim (kim369@purdue.edu)

OR participate in the poll on (by 4/20):
nanohub.org/topics/NCNPurdueStudents/Dinner

TALKS

“How to PhD: Three Perspectives”

Speakers
- Prof. Jan P. Allebach (Purdue ECE)
- Prof. Robert L. Givan (Purdue ECE)
- Dr. Dmitri E. Nikonov (Intel)

DINNER MENU (supported by NCN)

Pasta Bella Noce
- Garlic Bread and Assorted Focaccia
- Caesar Salad with freshly grated Parmesan Cheese
- Antipasti Display with Assorted Bruschetta
- Chicken Parmigiana
- Italian Meatballs, Vegetable Lasagna
- Roasted Seasonal Vegetables
- Cheese Tortellini, Tri-Color Rotini
- Marinara Sauce, Alfredo Sauce
- Freshly-Grated Parmesan Cheese on the side
- Tiramisu, Fresh Fruit Salad with Sabayon

The Network for Computational Nanotechnology is supported by the National Science Foundation and Purdue University. It has a vision to pioneer the development of nanotechnology from science to manufacturing through innovative theory, exploratory simulation, and novel cyberinfrastructure.